1. Introduction

The Ohio Department of Health (ODH) is seeking proposals from qualified agencies or organizations to develop and administer an examination for the general x-ray machine operator discipline. If a suitable offer is made in response to this RFP, ODH may enter into a contract (the Contract) to have the selected Offeror (the Contractor) perform all or part of the Project (the Work). This RFP provides details on what is required to submit a Proposal for the Work, how ODH will evaluate the Proposals, and what will be required of the Contractor in performing the Work.

ENCOURAGING DIVERSITY, GROWTH AND EQUITY (EDGE). ODH is committed to making more state contracts, services, benefits and opportunities available to small socially and economically disadvantaged Ohio businesses. EDGE is a contract assistance program designed to assist such businesses by facilitating access to state government contracts and business services for businesses certified in the program. For more information regarding EDGE and EDGE certification requirements, including a list of certified EDGE firms, please visit the DAS Equal Opportunity Division Web site at: <http://das.ohio.gov/Eod/Edge/Index.htm>. Additional information is also available at the DAS Office of Procurement Services Web site at: <http://www.ohio.gov/procure>.

2. Project Background

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code Section 4773.02, the Ohio Department of Health (ODH) issues licenses to individuals who perform radiologic procedures on human beings for diagnostic, medical, or therapeutic purposes in the state of Ohio. Individuals must be licensed in four specialized disciplines: general x-ray machine operator, radiography, nuclear medicine technology, and radiation therapy technology. This request for proposal is for the development and administration of an examination for only the general x-ray machine operator discipline which is required to be provided to all applicants at least once a month. A general x-ray machine operator is defined under 4773.01 as "an individual who performs standard, diagnostic radiologic procedures; whose performance of radiologic procedures is limited to specific body sites; and who does not to any significant degree, determine the site or dosage of radiation to which a patient is exposed." Furthermore, "standard, diagnostic radiologic procedures" means utilizing radiation-generating equipment for one or more of the following procedures limited to the licensed practitioner's scope of practice: chest and abdomen; extremity; skull and sinus; spine; podiatric radiography; or bone densitometry to include positioning the patient and setting the exposure parameters according to established technique charts. Standard, diagnostic radiologic procedures do not include, unless otherwise specified in Chapter 3701-72 of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC), the following procedures: mobile or portable; mammography; computed tomography; tomography; fluoroscopy; cinefluoroscopy; the use of contrast material; or interventional procedures".

To obtain the radiologic license(s), the applicant must complete a course of study from an educational program accredited by ODH, complete one or more of the competency-based clinical training modules identified in paragraph (F) of rule 3701-72-04 of the OAC, and pass an examination to ensure the competency of such individuals in the safe usage of radiation on human beings. It is not intended as a challenge to existing certification programs, but rather to ensure that consistent and adequate qualifications exist for each discipline.

3. Contract Award, Negotiations and Duration

Contingent upon the availability of funds and approval by the Director of Health, one contract will be awarded. The resultant contract(s) shall be in effect from approximately July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2015. However, state contracts may not extend beyond a biennium and the term of this project extends beyond the current biennium and therefore the contract will terminate on the last day of the current biennium. At that time, ODH may renew the contract or extend the contract under the same or similar terms and add additional funding, if necessary. The operating biennium expires June 30th of each odd-numbered calendar year.

6. Proposal Format

All contractors shall submit a proposal directly responsive to the terms and conditions of this RFP. If a contractor chooses to submit an alternative proposal, the contractor must, at the same time, submit a proposal directly responsive hereto for any alternative proposal to even be considered. Such alternative proposal shall clearly identify why the acceptance of the proposal would be advantageous to ODH. Any deviations from the terms and conditions of the solicitation, as well as the comparative advantage to ODH shall be clearly identified and explicitly defined. ODH reserves the right to amend the solicitation to allow all contractors an opportunity to submit revised proposals based on the revised requirements. Proposals shall be submitted with an original with three copies and an electronic version in Microsoft Word format. Proposals shall contain the sections listed in 6.2 through 6.6 below separated by tabbed and labeled dividers.

6.1 Addenda to the RFP.

6.1.1 If ODH decides to revise this RFP before the proposal due date, addenda will be announced on the Ohio Gateway Web site. When an addendum to this RFP is necessary, ODH may extend the proposal due date through an announcement on the Ohio Gateway Web site. Addendum announcements may be provided any time before 5:00 p.m. on the day before the proposal is due. It is the responsibility of each prospective contractor to check for announcements and other current information regarding the RFP.

6.1.2 After the submission of proposals, addenda will be distributed only to those contractors whose submissions are under active consideration. When ODH makes an addendum to the RFP after proposals have been submitted, ODH will permit contractors to withdraw their proposals. This withdrawal option will allow any contractor to remove its proposal from active consideration should the contractor feel that the addendum changes the nature of the transaction so much that the contractor's proposal is no longer in its interests. Alternatively, ODH may allow contractors that have proposals under active consideration to modify their proposals in response to the addendum.

6.1.3 If, however, ODH makes an addendum after the proposal due date, ODH will tell all contractors whose proposals are under active consideration whether they have the option to modify their proposals in response to the addendum. Any time ODH amends the RFP after the proposal due date, a contractor will have the option to withdraw its proposal even if ODH permits modifications to the proposals. If the contractors are allowed to modify their proposals, ODH may limit the nature and scope of the modifications. Unless otherwise stated in ODH's notice, modifications and withdrawals must be made in writing and must be submitted within 10 business days after the addendum is issued. If this RFP provides for a negotiation phase, this procedure will not apply to changes negotiated during that phase. Withdrawals and modifications must be made in writing and submitted to ODH at the address and in the same manner required for the submission of the original proposals. Any modification that is broader in scope than ODH has authorized may be rejected and treated as a withdrawal of the contractor's proposal

6.2 Cover letter.

All proposals must be submitted with a cover letter which includes bidders name, address and federal tax identification number, name and title of Project Manager or contact person, telephone and fax numbers and e-mail address, amount of total bid and RFP number. The letter must include a summary describing the bidder's approach to the project and provide ODH with a broad understanding of the entire proposal.

6.3 Technical Proposal.

6.3.1 The technical proposal shall describe in detail how the bidder will successfully complete the project tasks. All the tasks outlined in Section 5.0, Project Scope of Work and Deliverables, must be clearly identified and discussed. Responses should address and specify the exact section number as described in this document. For example, bidders should specify section number 5.1.0 when discussing Examination Development proposals.

6.3.2 The bidder will include in the proposal position descriptions and curriculum vitae of all personnel who will carry out the work required under the contract. The bidder should also attach a list of references who can be contacted and who have engaged the testing service to develop and/or administer similar types of competency examinations.

6.3.3 Bidders are cautioned that failure to submit at the appropriate level of detail the information required in the sections detailed below, will result in a determination that the bidder's proposal is non-responsive. Such a determination may result in ineligibility for contract award. If a requirement can be exceeded by the contractor, the proposal should state the degree to which the requirement will be exceeded and how this will be accomplished. If a requirement cannot be fully met, the contractor must state the reasons and must provide alternatives that include compatible equipment that can accomplish all the requirements specified.

Proposals should be prepared simply and economically, providing a straightforward, concise, yet complete description of the contractor's capabilities to satisfy the contract. Emphasis should be on completeness and on specificity and clarity of content.

Proposals should documentation demonstrating how the bidder meets the minimum requirement of section 4.0.

6.5 Cost Proposal

6.5.1 The bidder should prepare the cost proposal assuming that all of the costs to develop and administer the examination in Ohio will be fully financed through the fees charged to the candidates who take the examination. It is estimated that about 650 exams will be administered annually.

6.5.2 The bidder shall bid the fixed fee to be charged to the candidates who take the examination.

6.6 Other submissions

6.6.1 The contractor shall include a statement that it does not take exception to the terms of the sample contract template. (Attachment A). If the contractor does take an exception, any exceptions must be included in the contractor's proposal. Note: Taking exception to the terms of the contract or RFP may be grounds for eliminating the contractor from consideration for award of a contract.

6.6.2 W 9 Form, Vendor Information Form and Standard Affirmation and Disclosure Form. The Offeror must complete Federal Form W 9, Request for

Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification Form, the Vendor Information Form (OBM-5657) and the Standard Affirmation and Disclosure Form in their entirety. At least one (1) original of each form (signed in blue ink) must be submitted in the “original” copy of the Proposal. All other copies of the Proposal may contain duplicates of these completed forms. If a subsidiary company is involved, Offerors must have an original W-9 and OBM-5657 for both the parent and subsidiary companies. These documents and directions can be found on the OBM Web site under the heading “Vendor Forms” at <http://www.ohiosharedservices.ohio.gov/Vendors.aspx>

The form requires either a Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code or a North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code. These codes can be found at: http://www.osha.gov/pls/imis/sic_manual.html for the SIC codes or <http://www.census.gov/eos/www/naics/> for the NAICS codes. Offeror shall follow instructions to determine the proper code.

- 6.6.3 The Contractor must complete the Ohio Department of Health’s Contractor Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) Reporting Form which is attached as Attachment A6 in accordance with the instructions included with the form.

7. Evaluation of Proposals

7.1 Initial Review:

The ODH procurement representative will review all proposals for their compliance with format requirements and completeness. The procurement representative normally rejects any incomplete or incorrectly formatted proposal, although he or she may waive any defects or allow a contractor to submit a correction. Any proposal that is not received by the due date will not be evaluated.

7.2 Committee Review of the Proposals:

The evaluation committee will evaluate each proposal that the procurement representative has determined is timely, complete and properly formatted. The evaluation will be according to the criteria contained in the RFP.

7.3 Proposal Evaluation Criteria:

In the proposal evaluation phase, the evaluation committee will rate the proposal submitted in response to the RFP based on the following criteria and weight assigned to each criterion. If the Contractor meets the mandatory requirements in section 7.4, Mandatory Requirements, the Contractor’s proposal will be included in the next part of the evaluation, i.e., Technical Criterion.

Any proposal that does not meet the mandatory requirements of the RFP will not be considered. All other proposals will be evaluated and scored according to the requirements of the evaluation criteria outlined below. In order to be considered for the project, each proposal must receive at least 60% of the total points available under the technical scoring component. Total technical points available are 500.

Each proposal that meets the 60% or better standard in regard to technical score i.e. at least receives 300 points will move forward to have price calculated into their overall score. The proposal that is considered the best value or most advantageous to the State/ODH will be awarded the contract.

7.4 Mandatory Requirements

The Contractor has met the mandatory requirements stated under Section 4. “Qualifications of the Contractor”: Yes or No

Evaluation Committee must document how Contractor meets or does not meet the mandatory requirement.

7.5 Scoring

Completeness and Understanding of Project	100 points
Previous Testing Service Experience	200 points
Quality of the Technical Proposal	500 points
Project Personnel	200 points
Cost Proposal	400 points
 Total Possible Points	 1400 pts.

The cost proposal will be ranked by the selection committee. Four hundred (400) points will be awarded to the bid with the lowest acceptable total price per candidate. Points for other bids will be awarded using the following formula:

$$Z = \frac{X \times 400}{N}$$

X = lowest total price per candidate bid by any potential contractor being scored

N = total price per candidate bid by the potential contractor being scored

Z = assigned points for cost proposal of potential contractor being scored

Total Technical Score
Bid amount supported and best price
Total score

The preference designated in the Buy Ohio Guidelines as codified in Ohio Administrative Code section 123:5-1-06 will apply to the evaluation of proposals under this RFP.

Based on the evaluation committee’s evaluation of the proposals and cost, a recommendation of selection will be sent to the Director of the Ohio Department of Health. The Director will make a selection and his decision is final.

7.6 Clarifications & Corrections.

During the evaluation process, ODH may request clarifications from any potential Contractor under active consideration and may give any Contractor the opportunity to correct defects in its Proposal if ODH believes doing so does not result in an unfair advantage for the Contractor and it is in ODH’s best interests. Any clarification response that is broader in scope than what ODH has requested may result in the Contractor’s proposal being disqualified.

8. Submission of Proposals

8.1 To be considered, an original and three copies of the proposal must be submitted no later than 4:00 p.m. on March 25, 2013. No FAX proposals will be accepted. Proposals may be mailed or delivered to:

- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a “saving clause.” Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the “Name” line. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA)” name on the “Business name” line.

Limited liability company (LLC). Check the “Limited liability company” box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification (“D” for disregarded entity, “C” for corporation, “P” for partnership) in the space provided.

For a single-member LLC (including a foreign LLC with a domestic owner) that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulations section 301.7701-3, enter the owner’s name on the “Name” line. Enter the LLC’s name on the “Business name” line.

For an LLC classified as a partnership or a corporation, enter the LLC’s name on the “Name” line and any business, trade, or DBA name on the “Business name” line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the “Name” line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the “Business name” line.

Note. You are requested to check the appropriate box for your status (individual/sole proprietor, corporation, etc.).

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the “Exempt payee” box in the line following the business name, sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,
7. A foreign central bank of issue,
8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
10. A real estate investment trust,
11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
13. A financial institution,
14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The chart below shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 13. Also, a person registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 who regularly acts as a broker
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7

² However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

Call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you think your identity has been used inappropriately for tax purposes.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS personal property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.consumer.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT(438-4338).

Visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.
