Inclusive Play

More ways to play together The best inclusive playgrounds balance physical accessibility, age and developmental appropriateness, and sensory-stimulating play to create fun for individual exploration and group play. They also offer a mix of components that encourage children of all abilities to play together.

Nature-Inspired

Research shows that children who have opportunities to play in natural settings are typically healthier and more likely to become adults who respect and protect the environment. Our Nature-Inspired products blend the wonder of nature with the latest in playground innovation and safety. Realistic bark and rock textures set our nature-inspired components apart. Durable concrete offers a natural look and feel, and contains embedded fossils for kids to explore.

Fitness-Focused

When it comes to healthy kids and healthy communities, it's not a question of wanting to do the right thing; it's a question of how to do it. Statistics on obesity rates and negative lifestyle changes over generations illustrate the need for community changes and the importance of motivating kids to be active. These designs get and keep kids active and help participants make a positive, healthy impact on their communities. Kids gain physical benefits utilizing fun and challenging equipment.
