

The State has determined that it necessary to cancel this RFP and plans to re-release this opportunity with revised evaluation criteria in the next several business days as RFP #0A1102. While the State intends to limit its revisions to the evaluation criteria, we may incorporate minor clarifying revisions or corrections based on inquiries submitted by prospective offerors to date. Prospective offerors are advised to review the revised RFP closely. No further inquiries may be submitted for RFP #0A1098. All future inquiries must be submitted after the RFP had been re-released. The State offers an apology for any inconvenience created by this cancellation and your continued interest in doing business with the State is appreciated.
