

Additional Terms and Conditions

1. Term: The term of this agreement shall be for that period shown on the Quantity Purchase Agreement.
2. Patents: The Contractor agrees to defend, at its own expense, the State of Indiana and the Using Agency and to hold it harmless with respect to any claims that the equipment furnished by the Contractor under this agreement infringes or allegedly infringes any patents of the United States and with respect to any and all suits, controversies, demands, and liabilities arising out of such claim; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to infringement resulting from Contractor's use of a patented invention required to comply with the written instructions of the State, if such patented invention is not normally utilized by the Contractor, and provided that the State:
 - A. Gives the Contractor a prompt written notice of any claim; and
 - B. Allows the Contractor to control and fully cooperates with the Contractor in the defense and all related settlement negotiations.
3. Obligation: Contractor's obligation under the Patents Section is further conditioned on the State's agreement that if the operation of the equipment becomes or, in the Contractor's opinion, is likely to become the subject of such a claim, the State will permit Contractor, at its option and expense, either to procure the right for the State to continue using the equipment or to replace or modify it so that it becomes non-infringing. However, if neither of the foregoing alternatives is reasonably available, the State will return the equipment upon written request by the Contractor. The Contractor agrees to grant the State credit for returned equipment as depreciated. The depreciation shall be an equal amount per year over the life of the equipment established by mutual agreement of the State of Indiana and the Contractor.
4. Default:
 - A. If the Using Agency, after sixty (60) days written notice, fails to correct or cure any breach of this agreement, then the Contractor may cancel and terminate this Agreement and collect all monies due up to and including the date of termination.
 - B. If the Contractor, after sixty (60) days written notice, fails to correct or cure any breach of this agreement, the Using Agency may cancel and terminate this Agreement and thereafter owe no further monies for equipment usage beyond the termination date.
5. Assignment: The Contractor shall not assign or subcontract the whole or any part of this contract without the State's prior written consent. The Contractor may assign its right to receive payments to such third parties as the Contractor may desire without the prior written consent of the State, provided that Contractor gives written notice (including evidence of such assignment) to the State thirty (30) days in advance of any payment so assigned. The assignment shall cover all unpaid amounts under this contract and shall not be made to more than one party.
6. Alterations and Attachments: An alteration or attachment to equipment may be made only upon approval by the Contractor, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. The State agrees to remove any alteration or attachment and to restore equipment to its normal, unaltered condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, prior to its return to Contractor, or upon notice from Contractor that the alteration or attachment creates a safety hazard or renders maintenance of the equipment impractical.
7. Authority to Bind Contractor: Notwithstanding anything in the contract to the contrary, the signatory for the Contractor represents that he/she has been duly authorized to execute contracts on behalf of the Lessor/Contractor designated in the solicitation package and has obtained all necessary or applicable approval from the home office of the Contractor to make this contract fully binding upon the Contractor when his/her signature is affixed and is not subject to home office acceptance hereto and accepted by the State of Indiana.

Independent Contractor: Both parties hereto, in the performance of this contract, will be acting in an individual capacity and not as agents, employees, partners, joint ventures, or associates of one another. The employees or agents of one party shall not be deemed or construed to be the employees or agents of the other party for any purposes whatsoever. Neither party will assume any liability for any injury (including death) to any persons or any damage to any property arising out of the acts or omissions of the agents, employees, or subcontractors of the other party.
9. Penalties/Interest/Attorney's Fees: The State will in good faith perform its required obligations hereunder but does not agree to pay any penalties, interest, liquidated damages, or attorney's fees except as expressly required by Indiana Law including, but not limited to, IC 5-17-5, IC 34-54-8, IC 34-13-1.

11. Hold Harmless/Indemnification: The Contractor agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State of Indiana and its agents, officers, and employees from all claims and suits, including court costs, attorney's fees, and other expenses, caused by any act or omission of the Contractor and/or its subcontractors, if any. The State shall not provide such indemnification to the Contractor.
